Kraft Foods Foundation Sends Aid to Haiti to Help Families in Need

Foundation Makes Cash Donation to Support Families Affected by the Earthquake

NORTHFIELD, Ill., Jan 13, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- The Kraft Foods Foundation announced today it has partnered with the American Red Cross to donate $25,000 to help provide relief to victims of the earthquake in Haiti.

"Donations are especially important after a disaster strikes," said Nicole Robinson, Vice President, Kraft Foods Foundation. "Bringing comfort to the communities, especially during a time of tremendous need, makes an immediate positive difference in their lives." she adds.

Since 2000, Kraft Foods has contributed more than $11 million in cash and products for humanitarian aid to different locations worldwide. And over the last five years, Kraft Foods has donated more than $100 million in cash and $300 million worth of food to hunger relief and healthy lifestyle projects around the world.
